MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS*(Department of Transport)(Transport Wing)New Delhi, the 20th January 1960

S.O. 286.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 63C of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (4 of 1939), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by section 133 of the said Act.

THE INTER-STATE TRANSPORT COMMISSION RULES, 1960

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Inter-State Transport Commission Rules, 1960.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “Act” means the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (4 of 1939);

(b) “Chairman” means the Chairman of the Commission;

(c) “member” means a member of the Commission;

(d) “Presiding Officer” means the Chairman or any other member presiding over a meeting of the Commission;

(e) "section" means a section of the Act.

3. Term of office of members.—(1) The term of office of a non-official member shall be three years commencing from the date of his appointment.

(2) On the expiration of his term of office, a non-official member shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(3) The Chairman and the official members shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

4. Removal of members from office.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, remove any non-official member from office if he—

(a) has directly or indirectly any financial interest or holds any office in any road transport undertaking or in an association or union of road transport operators;

(b) has in the opinion of the Central Government, failed or is unable to carry on his duties so as to render his removal necessary; or

(c) has, without sufficient excuse, absented himself without the leave of the Commission from more than four consecutive meetings of the Commission.

5. Resignation of office.—A member may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the Central Government and he shall be deemed to have vacated his office on the date on which the acceptance of his resignation is communicated to him by the Central Government or on the expiry of thirty days from the date of receipt of intimation of the resignation, whichever is earlier.

6. Payments to be made to the members for attendance at meetings of, or for performance of other duties assigned by, the Commission.—(1) A non-official member shall be entitled to receive a fee of forty rupees for every meeting of the Commission which he attends, irrespective of the number of days the meeting lasts.

(2) If such member performs any journey to a place other than his usual place of residence or business for attending a meeting of the Commission or in connection with the performance of any duty assigned to him by the Commission, he shall be entitled to travelling allowance and daily allowance according to the provisions of the Ministry of Finance O.M. No. 10(2)-Est.11/51, dated the 12th April, 1951, as amended from time to time.

7. Temporary absence of any member.—If any member is by infirmity or otherwise rendered temporarily incapable of carrying out his duties or is absent on leave or otherwise in circumstances not involving the vacation of his office, the Central Government may appoint another person to act in his place.

8. Meetings of the Commission.—The Commission shall meet at such times and at such places as the Chairman may from time to time appoint in this behalf:

Provided that the Commission shall meet at least once in two months.

9. Notice of the meetings.—A notice of each meeting shall be sent to every member at least seven days before the date fixed for the meeting and it shall specify the place, the date and the hour of the meeting.

Provided that the Chairman may convene a meeting at a shorter notice for the purpose of disposing of any urgent business.

10. Agenda of meetings.—(1) A copy of the agenda with explanatory notes shall ordinarily be circulated to the members alongwith the notice of the meeting. No business not on the agenda shall ordinarily be transacted at any meeting.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) the Chairman may place or permit any member to place for the consideration of the Commission any matter not included in the agenda of a meeting.

(3) Any member who desires that a certain matter should be discussed by the Commission shall communicate that matter in writing along with a detailed memorandum to the Chairman and that matter shall ordinarily be included in the agenda for such next meeting as may be due next after fifteen days from the date of its receipt, unless the Chairman orders otherwise.

11. Quorum.—The number of members including the Chairman to constitute a quorum shall be half rounded off to the next number. If, within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned. If at the adjourned meeting, the quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for that meeting, the member present shall proceed to transact the business before the Commission notwithstanding the absence of a quorum.

12. Presiding Officer.—The meetings shall be presided over by the Chairman or, in his absence, by any member designated by the Chairman to preside, or if no member has been so designated, by any member chosen by the members present from among themselves.

13. Decisions.—All questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting, and in the case of an equality of votes, the Presiding Officer shall have a second or casting vote.

14. Adjournment.—(1) The Presiding Officer may adjourn any meeting until such date or time as he may specify, and at the adjourned meeting, only the business left unfinished at the meeting in which the adjournment was made shall be transacted.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), the Presiding Officer may permit the transaction of any other business.

15. Other points of procedure.—If any other point arises in regard to the procedure to be followed at a meeting, it shall be decided by the Chairman or, in his absence, the Presiding Officer.

16. Minutes.—The minutes of the proceedings of every meeting shall be circulated to the members as soon as possible after the meeting. The minutes shall be taken as correct and shall be signed by the Presiding Officer at the succeeding meeting unless any member who was present at the meeting to which the minutes relate, has objected to the minutes as having been incorrectly or incompletely recorded and communicated his objection in writing to the Chairman within seven days of the receipt of the minutes by him. Any objection received shall be put up at the next succeeding meeting before the Presiding Officer who, after taking the sense of the meeting may make such amendments in the minutes as he thinks proper, and the amended minutes shall then be confirmed and signed by the Presiding Officer.

17. Appointment of Sub-Committee.—(1) The Commission may appoint a Sub-Committee or Sub-Committees, each consisting of one or more of its members to consider any matter referred to it

(2) The Commission may also associate with such Sub-Committee any person whose assistance or advice it may desire in carrying out any of its functions. Any person so associated for any purpose shall have a right to take part in the discussions of the Sub-Committee relevant to that purpose, but shall not have a right to vote at a meeting of the Sub-Committee and shall not be a member thereof for any other purpose.

(3) The Sub-Committee's report shall be submitted to the Commission who may accept its recommendation or take any other decision thereon

18. Procedure of circulation.—When it is necessary to obtain the decision of the Commission on some matter and it is unnecessary or not possible or it is otherwise not considered feasible to convene a meeting of the Commission, the Chairman may circulate to each member full particulars of the proposal, inviting the member's views thereon by a specified date. The Chairman shall record the decision according to the views which may be received upto the specified date of the majority of the members including himself and, if necessary, by using his casting vote.

19. Minutes Book.—The minutes of the proceedings of each meeting, as confirmed and signed by the Presiding Officer and the decision recorded by the Chairman on the proposals which are decided by the procedure of circulation, shall be kept in chronological order in a Minutes Book.

20. Returns and Reports to be furnished by the Commission.—(1) The Commission shall furnish to the Central Government such returns, statistics and other information with respect to its working or any scheme proposed by it as the Central Government may from time to time require

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (1), the Commission shall, as soon as possible after the end of each financial year, submit to the Central Government a report on its activities during that year.

21. Powers and functions of the Commission.—The following powers and functions may also be exercised and discharged by the Commission, namely:—

- (i) classification of routes and areas as inter-State routes and inter-State areas for the purpose of developing road motor transport;
- (ii) survey of the requirements of any inter-State region for road motor transport;
- (iii) examining how best the additional requirements of such region can be met;
- (iv) preparing detailed schemes for provision or improvement of motor transport facilities in specific inter-State regions and advising the Central Government and the State Governments regarding the manner of implementation of such schemes;
- (v) division of traffic in inter-State regions among the States concerned;
- (vi) specifying the conditions which may be attached to a permit in respect of an inter-State region, subject to the provisions of Chapter IV of the Act,
- (vii) fixing the maximum and minimum fares for the carriage of passengers in an inter-State region;
- (viii) fixing the maximum and minimum freight rates for the various kinds of goods to be carried in an inter-State region, and laying down the conditions for the carriage of such goods;

- (x) advising the State Governments in the matter of:—
  - (a) taxation of motor vehicles,
  - (b) load restrictions, and
  - (c) rationalisation of goods transport services in inter-State regions,
- (xi) assisting in the conclusion of reciprocal arrangements amongst State Governments for the smooth and efficient operation of inter-State motor transport services;
- (xii) devising ways and means of extending road transport to inter-State regions where there is scope for its extension without creating uneconomic competition with other means of transport already available or likely to become available there;
- (xiii) co-ordinating the operation of transport vehicles with other means of transport in inter-State regions so as to ensure that—
  - (a) there is no uneconomic competition between the motor transport operators inter se and between motor transport and other forms of transport, and
  - (b) there is no duplication or waste of transport capacity;
- (xiv) regulating the timings of the passenger bus services in inter-State regions so as best to serve the convenience of passengers;
- (xv) advising the Central Government from time to time in regard to such measures as may be necessary for an integrated and co-ordinated development of inland transport resources of the country and their optimum utilisation;
- (xvi) visiting such places as it may consider necessary for the discharge of its functions;
- (xvii) convening meetings of the representatives of State Governments, motor transport operators, and other interests concerned;
- (xviii) sending out its officers to inter-State regions to check whether the directions issued by the Commission are being implemented, or to carry out a census of traffic;
- (xix) recommending to State Governments the enforcement of such traffic and safety measures in inter-State regions as the Commission may deem necessary;

(xx) doing all other things to facilitate the proper carrying on of the functions of the Commission.

22. Returns etc. by State Governments.—The State Government shall, if so required by the Commission furnish to it such periodical returns, statistics and other information as the Commission may from time to time, desire.

23. Purposes for which representatives of State Governments may be associated with the Commission.—The Commission shall associate with itself a representative each of the State Governments interested for the purpose of assisting the Commission in the performance of its functions specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) of section 63A and clauses (i) to (ix) and (xiii) to (xviii) of rule 21.

S.O. 303.—The following draft of an amendment of the Vizagapatam Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Scheme, 1959, which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1948 (9 of 1948), is published as required by the said sub-section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 28th February 1960.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be taken into consideration by the Central Government.

Draft Amendment

(1) In the said Scheme, in clause 45, after sub-clause (4), the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(4 A) (a) Where a worker has been suspended pending enquiry, he shall be paid for each day of suspension a subsistence allowance equivalent to the attendance allowance provided in clause 31 or one-fourth of his daily wage including dearness allowance, whichever is greater; provided that for the period of suspension in excess of a month, the Chairman may in exceptional cases grant a higher subsistence allowance not exceeding half the total daily wage including dearness allowance;

(b) the subsistence allowance so paid shall not be recoverable or liable to forfeiture in any case whatsoever;

(c) where a worker is found not guilty, he shall be entitled to such payments in respect of the period of his suspension as the Administrative Body may certify that the worker would have received on the time rate basis of under clause 32 had he not been suspended, provided that the amounts so payable shall be reduced by the amount of subsistence allowance already paid during that period.";

(ii) in clause 50, the following shall be inserted at the end of sub-clause (2) as item (iii), namely:—

"(iii) (a) Where a worker has been suspended pending enquiry, he shall be paid for each day of suspension a subsistence allowance equivalent to the attendance allowance provided in clause 31 or one-fourth of his daily wage including dearness allowance, whichever is greater; provided that for the period of suspension in excess of a month, the Chairman may, in exceptional cases grant a higher subsistence allowance not exceeding half the total daily wage including dearness allowance;

(b) the subsistence allowance so paid shall not be recoverable or liable to forfeiture in any case whatsoever;

(c) where a worker is found not guilty, he shall be entitled to such payments in respect of the period of his suspension as the Administrative Body may certify that the worker would have received on the time rate basis or under clause 31 had he not been suspended, provided that the amount so payable shall be reduced by the amount of subsistence allowance already paid during that period."
